FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM 2022-23

Devgad College is affiliated to university of Mumbai. All the programmes offered by the college are required to implement the syllabus prescribed by the University. Therefore, there is limited scope to reform and amend the curriculum. Teachers, students, alumni and employers are significant and valuable stakeholders of education system. Their genuine feedback is valuable for continual improvement in the curriculum. College has collected feedback on curriculum from these stakeholders and the findings are enclosed herewith.

The collected feedbacks were analyzed and the suggestions were sent to respective University BoSes of affiliating university for improvements.

➢ TEACHERS' FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM

Link to feedback form: https://forms.gle/c7BVYqB9LJ346ARm9

The following points are observed from the feedback by faculty members on curriculum.

- o According to faculty members, considering the NEP, the curriculum required to be revised. More practical component, internship, projects to be added to enrich the learning experience.
- o Some faculties have stated that the curriculum is needed to be restructured and contemporary literature trends should be introduced. The changing requirements of industries, market, society and stakeholders should be considered while syllabus designing. Online educations, global scenario, competence of student etc. factors are demanding the changes in curriculum.
- o University curriculum process is systematic but still requires more corrections.
- o Syllabus is good up to some extent but there is need to reconstruction of syllabus in view of completion in specific period.
- o Procedure to assess the attainment of course/ programme outcome required to be revised. Semester end written examination is inadequate tool of evaluation.
